Amendment of CAT Act

275. SHRI KARNENDU BHATTACHARJEE : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government propose to amend the Central Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985 during the Monsoon Session of Parliament;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor;

(c) whether any alternative machinery is being evolved for redressal of the grievances of Government employees; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) and (b) A proposal to amend the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 has been under consideration to incorporate a facilitating provision for abolition of any Administrative Tribunal if and when it is deemed necessary by the Government to do so and also to bring it in line with the pronouncements of Supreme Court of India relating to appellatejurisdiction over Administrative Tribunals. The Bill for amendment of the said Act will be introduced in the Parliament as and when Government takes a final decision.

(c) and (d) There is no proposal for abolition of the Central Administrative Tribunal at present. As regard State Administrative Tribunals, the proposed amendment requires the State Government to propose an alternate forum in case they wish to abolish a State Administrative Tribunal.

Restoration of commuted pension after 12 years

276. SHRI P. PRABHAKAR REDDY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that the Fifth Central Pay Commission has recommended in unequivocal terms that the commuted portion of the
